Overcote Wolfgang is a topperforming 5* bull, sired by CDI Secret Agent, a renowned US bloodline known for its exceptional performance. Wolfgang offers outstanding finishing traits while remaining an easy-calving option, making him well-suited for heifers.

He boasts excellent weaning and yearling GEBVs, ensuring fast growing, efficient offspring. With a strong Eye Muscle Area and Intramuscular Fat GEBVs, Wolfgang is an ideal choice for those looking to produce high-quality carcasses. A standout feature of Wolfgang is his high ranking for Dry Matter Feed Intake, meaning he is not a big eater but still maintains impressive growth rates, making him a highly efficient and cost-effective sire. For breeders seeking a high-growth, easy-calving, and feed-efficient bull, Wolfgang is a fantastic choice.
